What's Happening At Wantagh Public Library

Hello and greetings from your new library director, Joan Morris. I am very pleased and thankful to the Board of Trustees for entrusting me with the growing information and community needs of the Wantagh community, and with developing even better programs in the future to take advantage of the wealth of services available to all when using state-of-the-art communications devices and research to make these goals a reality.

I come from the Baldwin Library, where I was Assistant Director and Head of Reference for six years tasked with, among many responsibilities, writing a grant to bring financial literacy to the community and with initiating the e-books program. I also created new programs that provide critical outreach to promote the many aspects of your local library as a constant source of information, research and retrieval - and just plain fun and enjoyment for the entire family!

I spent decades prior as a business librarian in the private sector developing applications for mobile devices while continually implementing staff, program and cost efficiencies, where appropriate.

As we enter into the summer months the library has begun its summer reading programs for children, teens and adults. We will also have many programs throughout the summer for all age groups under the theme of "Libraries Rocks," so make sure to sign up for summer reading!

The wonderful library staff is ready to respond to all residents' needs that will help ensure a total customer service experience that's worth a visit to the Wantagh Public Library.

I look forward to seeing many of you soon!

Summer Reading

Libraries rock! Sign up for our music themed adult summer reading program where we will have music programs as well as weekly emails and lists of some great suggestions of what to read this summer. The more you read, the more raffle entries you can earn for some great prizes. Come and learn how to play blues harmonica with the Long Island Harmonica Club, no experience required! For our summer reading finale, we will get to listen to the Paul Joseph Trio play through classic jazz standards. This program will be followed by our summer reading raffle.

Adult summer reading will run from June 25 to August 13

Open to library cardholders 18 years or older.

Sign up at the Reference Desk, by emailing us at wplreference@wantaghlibrary.org, or on our Facebook page.
